1) The post of Fin. Secy to Govt became substantively vacant from a date earlier than that on which the appointment of Excise Comr fell vacant permanently. Sri K. Subba Rao who was the next officer to be confirmed on a pay of Rs 1400/- pm was confirmed as Fin. Secy to Govt from 23-10-49 and continued as Excise Comr and Sri H. Shamanna who was the next for confirmation on a pay of Rs 1400/- pm., was confirmed as Excise Comr from 22-12-49 and continued as Fin. Secy to Govt. These two officers are not holding the posts in which they are confirmed and consequently in the Civil List they are shown as permanent in one appointment and vacancy in another appointment. This could be avoided by removing their lien on their ors appointments and showing them against their permanent appointment i.e. Sri K. Subba Rao as permanent Ex. Comr and Sri H. Shamanna as permanent Fin. Secy to Govt. This arrangement would affect neither their emoluments nor their rank, as both the appointment carry the same pay and even in the order of Precedence they take their rank according to seniority in service. The A. G. may be informed accordingly.
